

Internet

The internet is a huge network that allows computers all over the world to share information.

The internet allows people to send email, chat online and transfer files.

The internet uses web pages to display and link information.

Software

A program which performs a task on a computer.

Software can help run computer hardware.

Software can allow users to:
edit text

make calculations

access the internet

create cards

send emails

show animations

check for computer viruses

... and more ...

